5. OBTAINING MEDICAL REPORTS FROM A GP

When you need to request a medical report from your/family member's GP, we can do this on your/family member's behalf with your or their consent.

We will always ask for your/family member's consent before requesting a report from your GP on your/family member's behalf and we will ask for your/family members consent on the telephone when we explain to you the need for the report. You can choose from three courses of action.

1. You/they can give consent without asking to see the GP's report before it is sent to us. The GP will send the report directly to us.

If you/they give consent to us obtaining a report without indicating that you/they wish to see it, you/they can change your/their mind by contacting your/their GP before the report is sent to us. In which case you/they will have the opportunity to see the report and ask the GP to change the report or add your/family member's comments before it is sent to us, or withhold your/family member's consent for its release.

2. You/they can give consent, but ask to see any report before it is sent to us, in which case you/they will have 21 days, after we notify you/them that we have requested a report from the GP, to contact your/family member's GP to make arrangements to see the report.

If you/they fail to contact the GP within 21 days, we will request they send the report direct to us. If however you/they contact the GP with a view to seeing the report, you/they must give the GP written consent before they can release it to us.

You/they may ask the GP to change the report if you/they think it is misleading. If your/family member's GP refuses, you/they can insist on adding your/family member's own comment to the report before it is sent to us.

3. You/they can withhold consent, but if you/they do, please bear in mind that we may be unable to progress with your/family member's claim.

Whether or not you/they indicate that you/they wish to see the report before it is sent, you/they have the right to ask your/family member's GP to let you see a copy, provided that you/they ask them within six months of the report having been supplied to us.

Your/family member's GP is entitled to withhold some or all of the information contained in the report if (a) they feel that it may be harmful to you/your family member (b) it would indicate their intentions in respect of you/your family member or (c) would reveal the identity of another person without their consent (other than that of a health professional in relation to your/family member's care).
